Online Conference on
World After Covid-19:
Multidisciplinary Ideas, Designs and Systems

May 10, 2020

▶ CONCEPT NOTE

We cordially invite you to be a part of a transformative event for a CAUSE!

Places can be locked down and people could be quarantined but IDEAS cannot be contained! The post-COVID-19 world requires us to adopt a fresh new world-view that is driven by collaborative technology and human wisdom.

There are those who are facing unprecedented sufferings and there are those who can extend their support in small but meaningful ways.

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE:

Covid-19 is the biggest lesson in the human history that calls for collective brain storming and sustainable solutions. Therefore, the nature of knowledge must evolve from narrow specializations to multidisciplinary because not too long we would have avoided mutual dependence and multiple causations. Primarily, the job of higher education is to generate new knowledge and provide fresh perspectives to the existing phenomenon like Covid-19 by investigating into systematic inquires and collaborations. Past two decades have presented unprecedented change in the quality of life due to the advents of technology, no matter who the person is, his/her life is being daily shaped by Artificial Intelligence and Bio-technology. However, arts and humanities cannot be overlooked for their contributions in the domain of man-making!

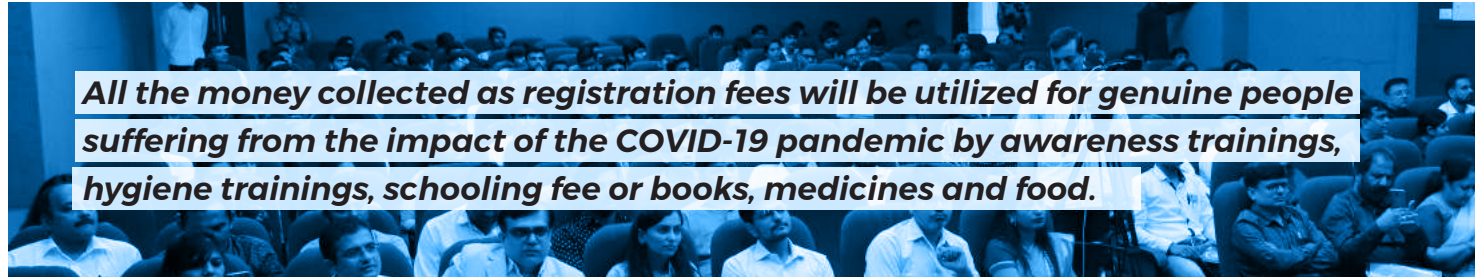

In such a pertinent context, it is inevitably wise to look at how multiple disciplines could engage in meaningful clusters and work on a Post Covid-19 World to render some kind of plausible solutions, designs and systems. It is the interface of various domains of knowledge from history to computer science, from art to management and from engineering to journalism that the conference aims to unfold.

Throughout the conference, the common thread that runs among the domains is multi-disciplinary collaborations to arrive at some specific solutions to the CORONA PANDEMIC faced by the world today.

Conference Objectives

We at Vedant, are pleased to announce the Online International Conference on Multidisciplinary for the larger academic fraternity to:

1. Ignite research insights into respective fields and
2. Contribute to those in need in these uncertain times

All the money collected as registration fees will be utilized for genuine people suffering from the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic by awareness trainings, hygiene trainings, schooling fee or books, medicines and food.
